Description

The design interior of the Albatros offices and coworking spaces is set in a building with a history and a distinctive genius loci right on Národní třída. The premises offer a pleasant working environment full of natural light, high-speed Wi-Fi connection and complete services provided by a team of always helpful and friendly community managers. In addition to separate private offices, you will find a number of shared coworking spaces, meeting and conference rooms, a café with refreshments and spacious sunny terraces with amazing views of Hradčany and the Old Town. You can easily expand your network of contacts in the collaborative spaces, and with top-notch connections, you can move to your next meeting point at any time by public transport. The work background also brings a lot of inspiration and opportunities to establish new business contacts and exchange experiences.
