Description

The project consists of a former factory building, which went through a general reconstruction and offers completely flexible spaces. It provides an excellent accessibility by public transport and fast connection to the north-south highway. The project is located in a developing part of Prague 8 in Křížíkova Street. The location guarantees excellent accessibility by public transport, tram stops. The Křížíkova metro station (line "B") is located in close proximity to the building. Easy access to the north-south highway is enabled by Pobřežní Street. Karlín is an area with a very good infrastructure, which provides all the services for tenants including hotel accommodation, banks, shopping centres and top-class restaurants.
