Description

East Building is an administrative building. Thanks to the use of modern technologies , it provides its clients with all possible comfort. The East Building has a total of seven floors above ground and three underground floors. In the second and third underground floors, interconnected by a communication ramp, there are parking areas. At the same time, there are rooms in the underground floors related to the technical operation of the building. On the first floor there is a catering place with facilities and administrative premises related to the operation of the building. The other above-ground floors form administrative premises. The atrium in the middle of the building is open, not covered. On the second and sixth floors there are terraces.
