Description

The Factory Office Center office building represents a combination of modern office space and respect for the traditional industrial development of Smíchov. The great advantage of the area is its excellent and variable accessibility. In addition to the access road to the South Junction, there are a number of options for public transport and suburban transport. The complex of office buildings is located above the entrance to the B-Smíchovské nádraží metro station, directly opposite the Smíchovské nádraží station, and is connected to the Anděl metro station. FOC symbolizes the last stage in the transformation of the former industrial area of Radlické mlékárny into an attractive administrative unit, located in the wider centre of Prague.
