Description

The ARA Palace building with a functionalist look, which has been sensitively renovated, is located in the very centre of Prague 1 on the corner of Jungamnnovo Square and Perlová Street. It offers quality and modern flexible office space, which can be adapted to the client's requirements in the form of open or closed offices. The top floor provides a beautiful panoramic view of Hradčany and the surrounding streets from two terraces. The tenants have a reception, security, openable windows and, for example, a restaurant. The building has great accessibility. One minute walk from here we find the metro station of lines A and B - Můstek, or the station of line B - Národní and also several tram stops. The proximity of Wenceslas Square or Na Příkopěch Street guarantees all civic amenities, including restaurants, shops, drugstores, offices, cultural activities and more.
