Description

The modern administrative building of Mezi Vodami is located on the edge of an office locality in Prague 4 with a view of the Vltava bank and the opposite side of Chuchelský háj. The U-shaped glass building with five above-ground and two underground floors has approximately ten thousand square meters of usable area. The premises are designed as open large office spaces, which are freely connected with an atrium full of greenery. The building is easily accessible by any type of transport. Directly in front of the building there is the Belárie tram stop (lines 3, 17, 52) and there are two city bus stops nearby. It is also easy to connect to the City and Prague ring road.
