Description

Náměstí Republiky 7 is built in the neoclassical style. This is a unique historic building, in which we find 10 floors. The total leasable area is 5,360 m². The upper floors are accessible via two stairs. The building can be used mainly as retail and office space. Náměstí Republiky 7 is located in the very heart of Prague. The area of Prague 1 is considered to be both the historical and the administrative centre of the city. There is a large number of headquarters of local and international companies, hotels and branches of many famous brands and restaurants. Near the building there is Náměstí Republiky with its metro station (line C), tram and bus stop and Masaryk railway station, so it is easily accessible place for everyone. You can easily get here by car from Revoluční Street and there are plenty of paid parking spaces nearby.
