Description

The new Skelet office building, located in the centre of Ostrava next to the Regional Office, offers modern office space for both medium-sized companies and smaller entities. Smaller offices are rented as equipped and ready to move in, and these are intended for tenants with a technological focus. This creates a technology and innovation centre in the heart of Ostrava. Larger offices are then available to tenants from any field of activity. They are unfurnished and will be completed for the future tenant according to his requirements for the internal layout.
