Description

WorkLounge Karlín is our first Prague branch, in which a friendly and relaxed atmosphere has prevailed for the third year in a row thanks to the growing community of members. The design of the branch in the former factory district corresponds to its history, so you can look forward to a modern interior combined with classic bricks. Our members have three lounge zones, an event space, a total of eight meeting rooms and shared and private offices. During the day, you can alternate the atmosphere of different workspaces, you get a representative place for meetings and peace of mind working in your own private office.
